Course Description

Texan Mosaic is South Plains College's digital-first newsroom. Students will rotate through roles as reporters, videographers, editors, producers, and hosts while producing biweekly video podcast episodes and weekly social media content.

The class emphasizes real-world production skills: interviewing, shooting b-roll, scriptwriting, narration, editing, and social adaptation. By the end of the semester, students will have a portfolio of published content that highlights their ability to tell stories across platforms.

Course Objectives

By the end of the course, students will be able to:

1. Identify and pitch story ideas, prioritizing audience engagement.
2. Conduct interviews and gather b-roll for news and feature packages.
3. Write conversational scripts for narration, VO, and podcast segments.
4. Use Adobe editing software to produce polished content.
5. Record and publish a video podcast using professional studio equipment.
6. Adapt long-form content into short-form reels and social posts.
7. Collaborate as part of a newsroom team, rotating through key roles.

Class Expectations

 - Meet Deadlines: Content must be produced on schedule for publishing.
 - Rotate Roles: Everyone will serve in multiple roles to gain broad experience.
 - Collaborate: Respect peers, contribute ideas, and be flexible.
 - Experiment: Try new approaches — this class is a safe place to learn.

Attendance Policy

This course functions like a newsroom: if you aren't there, production suffers. For this reason, participation and attendance makes up 25 percent of your final grade.

- More than 3 unexcused absences will lower your final grade.
 - More than 5 unexcused absences may result in failing the course.
 - Excused absences must be communicated in advance when possible.

AI Policy

Generative AI (like ChatGPT) may be used as a tool for brainstorming, scripting practice, or idea generation. However, all final scripts, interviews, edits, and content must be student-produced and original. Using AI to replace your work or misrepresent your skills will be considered academic dishonesty.

Technology & Materials

- Access to SPC studio and editing labs provided.
- Personal external hard drive or reliable cloud storage recommended.
- Smartphone may be used for supplemental b-roll if needed, but students must receive permission in advance prior to recording.

Final Note

This class is designed to be immersive and fun — you'll learn by doing. You'll leave the semester with real content, real skills, and real experience.

Academic Integrity

Plagiarism, fabrication, or using someone else's work (including AI-generated responses not properly credited or allowed) will result in academic consequences. See the SPC Student Handbook for full policies.

Artificial Intelligence Statement

• Purpose of Artificial Intelligence (AI) Applications:

AI applications are advanced language models designed to aid and engage in meaningful conversations, as well as, generate and revise content. AI is intended to supplement learning, stimulate critical thinking, and enhance academic discourse. However, its use comes with certain responsibilities.

• Academic Integrity:

Using AI to generate academic work, including essays, reports, or assignments, without proper attribution is a violation of SPC academic integrity policies. Plagiarism undermines the learning process and is strictly prohibited. Students must ensure that their work reflects their own ideas, research, synthesis, and analysis and appropriately cites all sources, including AI.

• Collaboration and Consultation:

While AI can be a valuable resource, it is essential to strike a balance between seeking assistance and maintaining personal responsibility. Collaboration with peers, consulting instructors, and utilizing other approved learning resources should be prioritized. Overreliance on AI for solutions without actively engaging in the learning process is discouraged and can be grounds for academic integrity violations. Utilizing AI as a tool for brainstorming or research is allowed but the writing should be the student's own work and thoughts.

• Critical Thinking and Originality:

AI usage can provide suggestions and information, but it is essential to critically evaluate the responses and exercise independent thought. Relying solely on AI for answers deprives students of the opportunity to develop their analytical and problem-solving skills. In assignments where originality, creativity, and independent thinking are valued, AI would be detrimental to the student learning process. Critical thinking and originality emphasize the importance of independent thinking in all academic endeavors as part of the student's learning experience apart from outside influence and offers the student the opportunity to refine their unique, individual voice through academic discourse with other students and faculty.

• Ethical Use and Bias Awareness:

AI is trained on large amounts of data from the internet, which may include biased or inaccurate information. Be mindful of the potential for bias and critically evaluate the responses provided by AI. Therefore, when using AI, just like with using any other database, students must verify that the information is from reliable sources, question any potential biases, and ensure that the information and sources used in the paper are neutral, peer-reviewed sources.

• Responsible Engagement:

Students should engage with AI in a respectful and responsible manner and avoid using offensive language, discriminatory remarks, or engaging in any form of harassment or inappropriate behavior. Students should also uphold the standards of respectful communication in addressing both AI and fellow classmates.

• Compliance with South Plains College Policies:

Policies regarding the appropriate use of AI in South Plains College courses are set by instructional departments and individual instructors. Appropriate use of AI may range from strict prohibition to assignments they may require the use of AI. Misusing or violating the guidelines outlined in this syllabus warning may result in disciplinary action, including academic penalties. Students are expected to familiarize themselves with the specific course policies regarding the use of AI and adhere to them throughout the semester.
